

CHIPPING ON NAPHILL COMMON

The photo shows the first consignment of wood chippings John Draper and Ron Collins spread on the muddy footpath from Chapel Lane this morning. The chippings were kindly donated by Richard Holiday of The Tree People2 who has agreed to let us have more chippings as and when he can. Ron will make contact with other local tree surgeons locally to see if they can assist. It will be interesting to see how long the chippings last.

